HOW YOU CAN HELP:

The Somerset Building Preservation Trust is a charitable organisation that repairs and restores buildings of historical interest which would otherwise be lost and brings them back into beneficial use within communities.

The Trust promotes higher standards of architectural design through its William Stansell Historic Building Awards and encourages the use of apprenticeships to teach traditional skills in conservation.

To learn more about the Trust and its work and how you can become involved with helping to save this most important building visit <https://www.sbpt.info/> and refer to the Somerset Building Preservation Trust YouTube Channel to see Episodes of "Saving No 9".

ABOVE: The white shop front currently 'The Hub - A Community Service Company'. No 9 is a Listed Grade 1 Elizabethan town house with first floor Courtroom containing a heavily decorated plaster ceiling all set behind this 'L' shaped three storey building.

OUR AIM:

... is to Conserve No 9 Fore Street and Connect the wider Community with Centuries of History in the Centre of Chard.

OUR MISSION:

... is to engage with the diverse population of Somerset, tailor the repairs and alterations to this historically important building to suit a communal purpose for the widest benefit and ensure the best quality workmanship to secure the building for future centuries.

THE STORY SO FAR:

In May 2023 Somerset Council acquired the freehold of No 9 with funding from Historic England simultaneously Somerset Building Preservation Trust purchased the new Lease from the Council.

The Architectural Heritage Fund is grant aiding the writing of the Viability Report. Advice and media guidance is provided by the South West Heritage Trust.

The SBPT has renegotiated the sub Lease with the existing tenants of the shop front, The Hub, which is a support group for the extensive Chard community.
